3 Appeals in respect of No 1 Division have been heard by the Commissioner and they are pending disposal Notices of appeal in respect of IX Division will be shortly issued

4 The time allowed for the revision work is six months and it expires by the end of May 1928 But by practical experience it is seen that nearly 4 months have been taken to -- complete the revision of I IX A IX B and II A Divisions or one month for each division Seeing that there are still 12 more divisions to be tackled, the appointment of the Special Revenue Officer and his staff may be continued for a further -- period of 6 months from 1st June 1928

The Revenue Auditor

5 The Revenue Auditor is carrying on the audit work by verifying ~~xx~~ the office registers Defalcation records and ---- ~~xxxxx~~ chiefly by inspecting the properties against which balances are shown and personally enquiring the parties

The important points noticed by him during the course of -- his investigations are of the following type ---

(1) Amounts defalcated but still shown in the D C B Registers as amounts due from rate-payers

(2) Amounts to be remitted on account of vacancy of houses shown as balances due.

(3) Petty amounts, i e sums not exceeding Rs 15/- in each case which are barred by limitation under Section -- 161 B of the Municipal Regulation for recovery by distraint of moveable property

(4) Properties acquired for public purposes and the assessment thereon continued to be shown as balances due

(5) Door Nos which are not traceable but arrears shown against them

15

(6) Amounts recovered but credits not posted in the D C B Registers

(7) Amounts lying in deposit and to be adjusted

(8) Properties the owners of which are not traceable

(9) Assessment on the properties which once existed in the Revenue lands but which have now fallen down

6 He has checked the balance statements or Baki Patties of the I, IX a, IX b, II a, and II b Divisions and submitted reports in respect of the I, IX A, and IX B Divisions These reports have been referred to the Managing Committee and Council

As there are still 11 Divisions to be dealt with the terms of the Revenue Auditor's post may also be extended by 6 months from -- 1st June 1928

7 It is requested that the Council may accord their administrative sanction for making a provision of Rs 2,640/- in the Budget for 1928-29, to meet the cost of the above special establishment
